

ANTI-BRIBERY STATEMENT

Al-Mahdi Institute · Registered charity in England and Wales · 60 Weoley Park Road, Birmingham B29 6RB

Version	1.1
Approved by the Board of Trustees	17/08/2026
Effective date	17/08/2026
Due for review	16/08/2027

1. The Al-Mahdi Institute does not tolerate bribery or corruption in any form.
2. The Institute does not offer, give, request or accept any payment, gift, hospitality or other advantage intended to induce or reward the improper performance of a function, and does not permit any person to do so on its behalf.
3. Trustees, employees, workers, volunteers and contractors are bound by the Institute's Anti-Fraud, Corruption and Bribery Policy, which sets out how gifts and hospitality are handled, how concerns are raised and how they are investigated. That policy is held internally and is available on request.
4. A concern about bribery, corruption or fraud involving the Institute may be raised in confidence with the Operations Manager at gagan.aulak@almahdi.edu. Concerns may be raised anonymously. No person raising a concern in good faith will suffer any detriment for doing so.
5. This statement is published in accordance with the Institute's obligations under the Bribery Act 2010.
